From the East

Brethren,

The coming of the New Year is more than a change of date or, as for the lodge, a time to usher in new leadership—it is an invitation to renew ourselves and to become more aware of who we are, both as men and as Masons.

In our Craft, renewal is found not in novelty, but in remembrance. The New Year invites us once again to reflect on the same symbols, to meditate on the same obligations, to ruminate on the same ancient landmarks—not because they change, but because we do. Each year gives us another opportunity to look more closely and honestly at the ashlar we are shaping. And gauge how far have we chiseled off superfluities from our edifice.

This is also a season of awareness. To be aware of our words, our actions, and the example we set within the Lodge and how we are viewed beyond its walls. To relieve our own reasons why we took the obligation and became masons. And may those reasons give us quiet strength and inspire us to persevere in the days to come.

Remember also, that when we wear the square and compasses, we stand for more than ourselves. We stand for the values of great men who came before us. We pay homage to their examples and to the trust reposed in us to act for the betterment of our community and ourselves. We also stand for the values we have promised to live by.

As we renew our commitment to Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth, may we also renew our commitment and awareness of one another. May we listen more carefully, labor more patiently, and meet each other with respect due to equals on the level.

The year ahead will present its own challenges, but it will also offer countless quiet moments to develop character. Let us resolve to be intentional in those moments, mindful of who we are becoming, and faithful to the charges entrusted to us. Let us remember that the strength of our Lodge does not rest in numbers alone, but in the integrity of its members.

As Worshipful Master, I am deeply grateful for your trust, your support, and your continued dedication to Bay Cities Lodge No. 337.
